Job Description

Kermode Friendship Society offers culturally sensitive, quality programs and services to the Aboriginal community members and community-at-large in the Terrace area. The Summer program assistant will be responsible for helping the program coordinators in program delivery on a daily basis. Skills acquired will include public speaking, positive public relations activities, group based program development and delivery along with interacting with a variety of age ranges. Insight and experience will be gained in the below mentioned programs.

Programs at Kermode Friendship Society include Administration, Aboriginal Child Youth and Mental Health, Circle of Life, Complex Developmental Behavioral Conditions, Aboriginal Infant Development, Family Skills, Aboriginal Early Child Development, Job Hawk and Aboriginal HeadStart.

The positions will allow for a summer program assistant to gain knowledge and awareness of the various programs offered to the community members of Terrace, and to create positive resource networks in the community of Terrace.

As an organization we seek to provide students with knowledge about the opportunities available with Kermode Friendship Society and in the Social Services sector. The Summer student positions are designed to allow new employees to gain meaningful experiences in the various locations of Kermode Friendship Society, providing a hands on experience for the successful applicant.

Requirements include

Students who have been registered and are intending on returning to school in the upcoming academic year, proven ability to multitask and work under pressure with a willingness to learn and gain new experiences. Be between the ages of 15-30 years of age, be a canadian citizen, permanent resident, or a person whom refugee protection is conferred under the immigration and refugee protection act, and be legally entitled to work in Canada in accordance with relevant provincial or territorial legislation and regulations.

If you are an enthusiastic and motivated student looking to gain new experiences, please forward your application to Jolene Wesley, email: hr@kermode-fs.ca.
